REPORTS FROM PHASERS ABOUT THEIR HOMES (weak homes)

- 1. Not reporting each other to staff when breaking a rule.
- 2. Not being up-front with attitudes (see #10)
- 3. Being closed off with feelings gone through during the day.
- 4. Being passive with foster brothers/sisters when they come to parents to get help.
- 5. Lack of communication (no family time).
- 6. Not holding each other accountable to their goals.
- 7. Foster parents not reading the MI's of the kids that live in their house.
- 8. Not following through with giving consequences.
- 9. Foster parents enabling their kids.
- 10. Oldcomers not getting their newcomers to talk about their attitude & getting it resolved.
- 11. Oldcomers arguing over who gets to watch the newcomers.
- 12. Not holding each other accountable to pick up after themselves and not administering consequences when they don't.
- 13. Selfish wanting their own way--always driving kids whenever and where-ever wanted, leaving foster brother or sister with the newcomer.
- 14. Unorganized scheduling
- 15. Non-serious attitude touching games for attention like messing hair or sticking hands in peoples faces. Knocking things out of people's hands.
- 16. Not sharing as a family. Talking on the phone instead of with family when needed. Talking later instead of now or in group instead of both now & in group.
- 17. Oldcomer separating himself--not involved in family discussings, alone constantly, going off writing MI's, not talking about MI's.
- 18. Being lazy pushing the newcomer off on others, not showing care by having TV too loud with newcomers in room.
- 19. Letting siblings slide by and misbehave without reporting it.
- 20. Not being assertive to get responsibilities done.
- 21. Oldcomers expecting too much from new newcomers to learn rules, steps.
- 22. Not giving proper feedback on MI's--rush through.
- 23. Oldcomers put themselves above newcomers--being cocky with attitudes, thinking of themselves as better.
- 24. Expressing non-constructive attitudes passiveness.
- 25. No respect for other people's feelings.
- 26. Power struggles between oldcomers.
- 27. Hypocritical giving feedback and not applying it to self.
- 28. Consistently confrontive attitudes toward newcomers.
- 29. Playing favorites. One newcomer getting all the positive credit.
- 30. Oldcomers clicking.

- 31. Oldcomers not being strong with disciplining newcomers.
- 32. Not talking about our past not talking about our day.
- 33. Spoiling newcomers with food.
- 34. Foster parents talking behind backs.
- 35. Oldcomers getting rapped up in TV or radio.
- 36. Foster parents talking about drugs, druggies, rock music, etc.
- 37. Newcomers not being enthused.
- 38. Letting newcomers use things without asking.
- 39. Sibling leaving household.
- 40. Parents blowing up and not listening to the kids.
- 41. Placing importance on phases.
- 42. Homes not secure lax with turning back and leaving knives out, etc.
- 43. When newcomers are doing well with themselves phasers pay less attention to them and their needs.
- 44. Newcomers not reporting oldcomers.
- 45. Twisting rules justifying no going out until 3rd phase (having one food in and one foot out door).
- 46. Parents not being home to supervise or participate with kids (mom left).
- 47. Taking sides (mother/daughter against father/son) not working together.
- 48. Parents lying to kids/kids lying to parents
- 49. Putting down family calling names.
- 50. Oldcomers passing off responsibilities on newcomers making them do housework.
- 51. Independent attitudes oldcomers not accepting criticism from new-comers and vise-versa.
- 52. Foster parents making excuses for phasers.
- 53. Few solid home rules about night priorities.
- 54. No sharing between family.
- 55. Talking during MI's.
- 56. Lack of trust between oldcomer/newcomer.
- 57. Parents pulling teeth to get oldcomer to go over MI's.
- 58. Parents walking away and closing off from kids.
- 59. Passing off conflict and not dealing with their feelings.
- 60. Spending extreme amounts of time late at night on arranging permissions, yelling at foster mom/dad during conflicts, talking for ten minutes when only supposed to talk for 5 minutes. Mom changes it to ten.